
Time & Place

The Animal Rights 2020 National Conference will be held July 16-19, 2020 at the Hyatt Regency Portland located at 375 Northeast Holladay Street, Portland, OR 97232. In addition to conference registrants, the general public is invited to visit the exhibit areas free of charge.

Exhibits will be open Friday, July 17 and Saturday, July 18 from 10:30am – 6:30pm, and on Sunday, July 19 from 10:30am – 5:00pm. Please note that these times are subject to change. Exhibitor set-up will be Thursday, July 16 from 4pm - 7pm and Friday, July 17 from 8am - 10am. Breakdown will be 5pm - 9pm on Sunday, July 19. The hotel may discard items not removed by that time.

Each exhibit consists of a 6' table (or the equivalent 6' floor space should the table be removed) and two chairs. Display height is limited to 7' for wall exhibits and 5.5' for all others. Location will be assigned by the Exhibits Manager with priority given to sponsors and early registrants.

Exhibit Pricing & Details

In an effort to make exhibit space affordable to groups of all sizes, fees are broken up into tiers based on income with an additional 15% discount for nonprofit organizations (pricing on page 3). A limited number of wall spaces are available for an additional $50 per table. Electric hookup is available for $25. The exhibit areas will have unsecured open WiFi. Secured connections may be purchased directly through the hotel (rates and details TBA).

No space will be held without pre-payment. The contract submission deadline is July 3rd. Exhibit fees are refundable less a $50 processing charge upon written cancellation if submitted by July 3rd, no refunds will be processed after July 3rd. If AR2020 must cancel the exhibit through circumstances beyond its control, its liability will be limited to full refund of exhibit fees.

Each exhibitor receives two registration badges which provides access to exhibit areas, daytime sessions, evening/morning plenary sessions, and networking events. Banquet tickets and meals are not included. There is no admission charge to enter the exhibit areas, so exhibitors are welcome to invite as many helpers as needed (instruct them to check in at registration).

Exhibit materials may be shipped to the Hyatt Regency Portland to arrive between July 13-16 (no earlier than one week before the event). Boxes must be addressed to the hotel, marked "For Animal Rights 2020 National Conference" and have the exhibitor's full name and organization with number of boxes (1 of 3, 2 of 3, etc.). Failure to properly label boxes may result in loss of items or a delayed delivery at time of set-up. There is a charge of $15 per incoming shipped box to the hotel which you can pre-pay with registration. Outgoing shipments are the responsibility of the exhibitor and can be arranged directly with the hotel FedEx office or preferred shipping method.

Conditions

Exhibitors may not advocate for or condone any form of animal exploitation and must be in alignment with the conference vision that animals have the right to be free from all forms of human exploitation. All merchandise offered must be free of all animal ingredients and must not be tested on animals. No literature or signs may attack any organization advocating animal protection or veganism. Literature and merchandise may not advocate for or suggest injury to any living being. Exhibits displaying signs or merchandise with explicit profanity may be placed in the back of the exhibit hall.

Per hotel guidelines, indoor exhibitors may only distribute food items that are fully sealed (such as single serving snack bars, trail mix, granola, etc.). Any exhibitor distributing such food items must be a certified business with proper licensing. No food may be served in bulk and distributed with any risk of contamination (no open bags, packages, or containers). Food vendors may not operate inside the hotel but are invited to exhibit outdoors and must fill out the AR2020 Food Vendor Contract (space is limited).

All merchandise and products must be 100% plant-based (no animal products - no meat, eggs, dairy, honey, or by-products i.e. gelatin).

No exhibit may be operated in a manner that detracts from the effective operation of other exhibits or the conference. Activity may not extend outside the assigned space. Attaching signs to walls and loud sounds are prohibited.

Each space will be pre-assigned and may not be changed or re-assigned without authorization of the Exhibits Manager. We reserve the right to make layout adjustments on-site.

Exhibitors and volunteers are expected to abide by AR2020's safe space policy listed on the website.

Any exhibitor violating these conditions will be offered an opportunity to make the needed correction. Problems will be adjudicated by Conference Management and may result in expulsion and forfeiture of fees.

Exhibitor agrees to hold harmless the Animal Rights National Conference, Farm Animal Rights Movement, the Hyatt Regency Portland, and their employees and agents against any property or other losses or claims arising out of their use of the exhibit premises.
